A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Assistant Director

CLEMMONS, NC – (Dec. 1, 2015) – A Child's World Learning Centers, the largest independently owned and operated child care centers in the Winston-Salem area, are pleased to announce the appointment of Katrina Darr as Assistant Director of its South Winston-Salem school.

Darr has more than 10 years of valuable early childhood education experience. Prior to joining A Child's World Learning Center, Clemmons, as a lead preschool teacher, she was Program Director at YMCA of Northwest North Carolina. She has also worked in a teaching role with the Davidson County School System.

Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "We are excited to have Katrina transition into this new role at our South Winston-Salem school. She will be instrumental in assisting with school leadership and maintaining a safe and nurturing environment that fosters life-long learning."

About A Child's World Learning Centers

For more than two decades A Child's World Learning Centers, winner of the 2015 Triad Moms on Main Choice Award for Favorite Child Care Facility in the Winston-Salem area, have provided exceptional care, love and education to more than 6,000 area children. The schools have earned a reputation as trusted and nurturing caregivers who develop life-long learners and a foundation for a positive self-image. With four North Carolina locations in Downtown Winston-Salem, South Winston-Salem, Bermuda Run and Clemmons, the schools are the largest independently owned and operated child care facilities in the Winston-Salem area.
