A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Clemmons School Director

CLEMMONS, N.C. – (May 24, 2016) – A Child's World Learning Centers (ACWLC) are pleased to announce that Kathy Johnson has been promoted to Director of A Child's World Learning Center, Clemmons.

Kathy has been an Assistant Director with ACWLC for the past eight years, having transferred from ACWLC South Winston-Salem to ACWLC Clemmons in November of last year. Kathy's experience and education are important assets to the role. With a Bachelor's Degree in Human Development and Family Studies, she possesses a vast knowledge base in early childhood education. In addition, Kathy's dedicated service to ACWLC over the years has allowed her to develop an advanced insight into the company's operations.

Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "Kathy is a valued long-standing member of our family and we are excited to have her advance to the role of Director. She will be instrumental in leading the school and maintaining a safe and nurturing environment that fosters life-long learning."

About A Child's World Learning Centers

For more than two decades A Child's World Learning Centers, winner of the 2015 Triad Moms on Main Choice Award for Favorite Child Care Facility in the Winston-Salem area, have provided exceptional care, love and education to more than 6,000 area children. The schools have earned a reputation as trusted and nurturing caregivers who develop life-long learners and a foundation for a positive self-image. With four North Carolina locations in Downtown Winston-Salem, South Winston-Salem, Bermuda Run and Clemmons, the schools are the largest independently owned and operated early childhood education facilities in the Winston-Salem area.
