A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Assistant Director

CLEMMONS, NC – (July 26, 2016) – A Child's World Learning Centers, the largest independently owned and operated child care centers in the Winston-Salem area, are pleased to announce the appointment of Heather Youells as Assistant Director of its Clemmons school.

Youells previously worked as an Infant Teacher at ACWLC Clemmons and is passionate about early childhood education. She also holds a Bachelor's Degree in Human Development and Family Studies. Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "We are excited to have Heather transition into this new role at our Clemmons school. She will be instrumental in maintaining a safe and nurturing environment that fosters life-long learning."

About A Child's World Learning Centers

For more than two decades A Child's World Learning Centers, winner of the 2015 Triad Moms on Main Choice Award for Favorite Child Care Facility in the Winston-Salem area, have provided exceptional care, love and education to more than 6,000 area children. The schools have earned a reputation as trusted and nurturing caregivers who develop life-long learners and a foundation for a positive self-image. With four North Carolina locations in Downtown Winston-Salem, South Winston-Salem, Bermuda Run and Clemmons, the schools are the largest independently owned and operated child care facilities in the Winston-Salem area.
