A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Assistant Director

WINSTON-SALEM, NC – (Oct. 18, 2016) – A Child's World Learning Centers, the largest independently owned and operated child care centers in the Winston-Salem area, are pleased to announce the appointment of Sarah Griffis as Assistant Director of its South Winston-Salem school.

Sarah has a solid background in early childhood education and program supervision experience, most recently with the Winston Lake YMCA. She also has a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology. Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "We are excited to have Sarah join our South Winston-Salem school. She will be instrumental in maintaining a safe and nurturing environment that fosters life-long learning."

About A Child's World Learning Centers

For more than two decades A Child's World Learning Centers, winner of the 2015 Triad Moms on Main Choice Award for Favorite Child Care Facility in the Winston-Salem area, have provided exceptional care, love and education to more than 6,000 area children. The schools have earned a reputation as trusted and nurturing caregivers who develop life-long learners and a foundation for a positive self-image. With four North Carolina locations in Downtown Winston-Salem, South Winston-Salem, Bermuda Run and Clemmons, the schools are the largest independently owned and operated child care facilities in the Winston-Salem area.
