A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Clemmons School Director

CLEMMONS, NC – (May 23, 2017)– A Child's World Learning Centers (ACWLC), the largest independently owned and operated child care centers in the Winston-Salem area, are pleased to welcome Amy Bendel as Director of A Child's World Learning Center, Clemmons.

Bendel has joined ACWLC from a large school in Greensboro, where she has spent the past five years in a management position. She also possesses almost two decades of early childhood education experience and has an Associate's Degree in early childhood education.

Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "We are excited to have Amy join our family. Her experience and enthusiasm will be instrumental in leading the school and continuing to foster an environment committed to excellence in early childhood education."

About A Child's World Learning Centers

For more than two decades A Child's World Learning Centers have provided exceptional care, love and education to more than 6,000 area children. The schools have earned a reputation as trusted and nurturing caregivers who develop life-long learners and a foundation for a positive self-image. With four North Carolina locations in Downtown Winston-Salem, South Winston-Salem, Bermuda Run and Clemmons, the award-winning schools are the largest independently owned and operated child care facilities in the Winston-Salem area.
