A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Program Director

CLEMMONS, NC – (Sept. 29, 2015) – A Child's World Learning Centers, the largest independently owned and operated child care centers in the Winston-Salem area, are pleased to welcome Theresa Moore as Program Director.

Moore has more than 25 years of valuable early education experience. One of the first children to attend Head Start in 1965, she has spent the previous ten years there in various administrative and classroom roles. With a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education Administration and a master's degree in Early Childhood Education from Ashford University, Moore brings an extremely strong knowledge base to the position. Her Doctor of Education from Walden University is currently in progress.

Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "We are excited to have Theresa join our family. She will be instrumental in bringing our program to new heights as we continue to lead in the development of life-long learning at our centers."

About A Child's World Learning Centers
