A Child's World Learning Centers Announce New Assistant Directors

CLEMMONS, N.C. – (Feb. 29, 2016) – A Child's World Learning Centers (ACWLC) are pleased to announce the appointment of Kristina Smith as Assistant Director of its Bermuda Run school and Johnathan Dillon as Assistant Director of its Downtown Winston-Salem school. Johnathan has transferred from his Assistant Director role at ACWLC Bermuda Run while Smith has been promoted from her Lead Teacher position at ACWLC South Winston-Salem.

Johnathan has been an ACWLC team member for close to three years. Johnathan's valuable early childhood education experience and knowledge will be highly appreciated in his new role. Kristina has a strong professional background in early childhood education and has been a member of the ACWLC family for more than ten years. She also has her Associate's Degree in Early Childhood Education with a certification in Administration.

Andy Hewitt, President of A Child's World Learning Centers, said "We value professional growth at our schools and are excited to have Kristina and Johnathan transition into these new roles. They will be instrumental in assisting with school leadership and maintaining safe and nurturing environments that foster life-long learning."

About A Child's World Learning Centers

For more than two decades A Child's World Learning Centers, winner of the 2015 Triad Moms on Main Choice Award for Favorite Child Care Facility in the Winston-Salem area, have provided exceptional care, love and education to more than 6,000 area children. The schools have earned a reputation as trusted and nurturing caregivers who develop life-long learners and a foundation for a positive self-image. With four North Carolina locations in Downtown Winston-Salem, South Winston-Salem, Bermuda Run and Clemmons, the schools are the largest independently owned and operated child care facilities in the Winston-Salem area.
