

Johane Jacaman

Experience

20+ years in the Childcare Industry
With ACWLC since 3/6/1999
Center Director since 6/9/2003
Member of the NCLCCA

Johane has been leading the metro location of ACWLC as a close-knit family for nearly two decades. The school has an open concept, which allows for children and staff alike to intermingle throughout the day and form lifelong bonds. Her teaching team boasts an extremely low turnover rate, with multiple staff members having been employed for 10, 15, even 25 years and several retiring from the company. The school has even had three generations of the same family as teachers, parents, and students! Johane is known to lead by example and jump into a classroom at any time to assist. Her unique blend of outstanding leadership, work ethic, and knowledge brings comfort to her team and families.

Education

Forsyth Technical Community College, Winston-Salem, NC

- Admin Certificate in Early Childhood Education
- School Age Teaching Certificate
- Children with Exceptional Needs Teaching Certificate
- Special accreditation- School Age Certification

About Johane

Johane was born in Port au Prince, Haiti and moved to the United States when she was six, spending time in both New Jersey and New York. She has been married for over 30 years and is a proud parent of two smart, handsome, and respectful young men. Johane is a fan of the New York Giants football team and loves shopping in general (she is a Black Friday expert), but Target is her favorite spot!
