

Murlette Simmons

Professional Profile

24+ years in the Childcare Industry
With ACWLC since 1/6/2020
Center Director since July 2023
Level III Administrator
Member of the NCLCCA

Murlette grew up “playing teacher” with her cousins. As an adult she first entered the nursing field and was a level II CNA working towards a degree in Neonatology... until she had her own preemie baby. She then switched gears and decided she wanted to teach young children as a career. After twenty years’ teaching she decided to further her education and enter Early Childhood Administration. She spent time as an Assistant Director at ACWLC-South and then earned her own school at ACWLC-Bermuda Run.

Education

Salem College, Winston-Salem, NC

- Bachelor’s degree in Education
- NCECC I and II, Admin Credentials I and II from Forsyth Technical Community College
- Working towards a Principal Master’s degree in Education

About Murlette

Murlette was born in Winston-Salem and has lived in this area her entire life. She is a mother to three boys but FIVE call her “Mom” 😊 In her free time, Murlette enjoys painting murals, hiking to waterfalls, and exploring new places. She enjoys spring in North Carolina and her motto is, “I love children but COFFEE first!”
